

Download Criminal Justice System Studies Punishment

In such circumstances a discussion of punishment in Criminal Justice Matters is timely. This issue grew out of seminar, hosted in June 2005, by the Crime and Society Foundation, which is based at the Centre for Crime and Justice Studies. Many of the contributors attended the seminar which considered a broad series of questions in relation to the notion of punishment. Whether one feels more ...'The central purpose of the Criminal Justice System is to deliver an efficient, effective, accountable and fair justice process for the public.' A similar tone was set by the 'Policy Green Paper' published in early March 2008 by the Conservative Party, entitled ' Prisons with a purpose '.Criminal justice is the delivery of justice to those who have committed crimes.The criminal justice system is a series of government agencies and institutions whose goals are to identify and catch unlawful individuals to inflict a form of punishment on them.This powerful observation by former prisoner and founder of Women in Prison, Chris Tchaikovsky, sums up what campaign organisations, government reports and academic studies consistently tell us about women caught up in the criminal justice system., Criminal Justice System Studies Punishment.

Other Files :