Reparations for slavery have been paid and are being paid since the Freedmen's Savings and Trust Company was founded in 1865. Race-based civil rights and affirmative action programs that exist today can be understood as compensatory damages for the 246 years of chattel slavery. 246 years from the 1865 end of slavery via the 13th Amendment is ...Some presidential candidates are apparently suicidal, and have been caught on the television cameras supporting reparations for slavery. I don't think anyone who does this can get elected, even in Arkansas. Warning - thread AIU: Hell no to reparations. might contain content that is not suitable for all ages.
